International student application Postgraduate research scholarship

Eligibility

This scholarship is available to postgraduate students who are citizens of overseas countries, excluding New Zealand, who are commencing full-time study for a higher degree by Research (Master of Philosophy or Doctor of Philosophy) at Murdoch University.

The following are ineligible for a scholarship under this scheme:

- An international student who has already obtained a Doctor of Philosophy degree or equivalent.
- An international student who has already obtained a Master of Philosophy degree or equivalent and who seeks to undertake another Masters degree by research; and
- An international student who has already commenced the research for their current Masters or Doctorate prior to 1 January of the year for which the scholarship is to be awarded.

What the scholarship covers

- The scholarship is provided to cover the tuition fees set by Murdoch University for each year of the course.
- This is limited to three years for students enrolled in a Doctor of Philosophy and two years for a Master of Philosophy.
- The scholarship does not cover living and other costs associated with studying at the University.

Requirements

All applicants must complete the postgraduate application form fully. You must:

- Include original or certified copies of all academic transcripts and confirmation of graduation.
- Make sure that your referees submit their report forms as soon as possible.
- Enclose details of past research experience and a research proposal for the PhD or MPhil.
- Enclose proof that you meet the University's English Language requirements.

Closing date – All applications must reach Murdoch International by 30 September. Both successful and unsuccessful applicants will be notified in late December.

Declaration – I wish to be considered by Murdoch University for an International Postgraduate Research Scholarship. I understand that by applying for this scholarship my application for both admission and the IPRS will only be considered in December.

If I am unsuccessful in gaining the IPRS, I still wish to be considered for admission only: Yes No
