Study Abroad and Exchange at RMIT

Ready for a change, but don't want to commit to a full program? Why not join RMIT as a study abroad or exchange student!

Immerse yourself in a new and exciting culture by studying at RMIT in Melbourne - the world's most liveable city - or Vietnam - RMIT's Asian hub - for a semester or two. Take advantage of the University's strong connections with industry, work-relevant courses and practical learning.

RMIT hosts more than 1,000 study abroad and exchange students from more than 100 countries each year.

Our students are talented and incredibly diverse.

A Global University of Technology, Design and Enterprise

We prepare graduates for success in life and work, so they can positively contribute to, and shape, the world.

One of Australia's original universities, RMIT is proud of its international reputation for excellence in practical education, outcome-driven research and engagement with the needs of industry and the community.

Life in Melbourne

Melbourne is a welcoming multicultural city where diversity is celebrated. The city is internationally recognised for its vibrant food and coffee culture. Melbourne features beautifully maintained public spaces, a network of bustling, creative laneways, iconic galleries and museums, as well as a lively year-round calendar of cultural, entertainment, fashion, food and sports activities and events.

Things to do in Melbourne

- Wander the laneways of the world's most liveable city.
- Head to the Melbourne Cricket Ground to watch a game of cricket or Aussie Rules football.
- Watch a movie in the Royal Botanic Gardens with Moonlight Cinema.
- Explore the CBD on iconic Melbourne trams.
- Shop at the bustling Queen Victoria Market.

Life in Vietnam

Your education is not confined to the classroom as outside our campuses the energy of Vietnam awaits. RMIT Vietnam offers a diverse learning experience in a vibrant and culturally rich country.

- Explore Ho Chi Minh City's lively Ben Thanh Market.
- Take a tour of the beautiful lush Mekong Delta.
- Visit the UNESCO world heritage site Ha Long Bay.
- Satisfy all your senses with Vietnam's unique cuisine.
- Wander through Hanoi's famous Old Quarter.

Study Areas

RMIT study abroad and exchange students can design their own study plan by selecting 3-4 courses from 400+ programs.

Orientation and Support

MELBOURNE

Get set for an action-packed three day orientation program full of events and activities that will introduce you to the academic and social side of campus life. You'll meet loads of new friends, get a taste of Australian culture and most importantly - have a lot of fun!

DAY 1 Discover RMIT

Attend sessions that cover enrolment and timetabling, academic and support services for students, accommodation and rental advice, student visa rights and responsibilities. We will have guided campus tours and you will also get the chance to meet your fellow exchange and study abroad students.

DAY 2 Discover Melbourne

Learn everything you need to know about living in Melbourne, including health and safety, travelling around Australia, Aussie sporting culture and more.

DAY 3 Discover Victoria (optional)

After an action-packed two days of orientation, you have the opportunity to participate in a day trip to one of Victoria's most iconic sights, such as the spectacular Great Ocean Road or Phillip Island, while getting to know other exchange and study abroad students.

 For more information: <http://bit.ly/exchange-studyabroad-support>

Airport pick-up service

As a study abroad or exchange student you are entitled to free airport pick-up. You need to register for pick-up before you arrive in Australia.

Mates at RMIT

New international students are connected with current students through Mates at RMIT, a peer-mentoring program that offers a friendly support network to help you settle into Melbourne life. For a complete range of mentoring and volunteering programs, visit rmit.edu.au/mates

Orientation Day

Orientation day formally marks the beginning of semester for new students, and is loaded with useful information about the facilities and services. The event is usually organised one week prior to the start of semester. It is important you attend orientation and the other welcome events in order to meet other students, and become well-equipped for your experience at RMIT Vietnam.

Orientation Day includes:

- ◆ Collect your student ID card and orientation kit;
- ◆ Learn about useful resources and support services (housing, banking, insurance, etc.);
- ◆ Learn about safety; local community and Vietnamese culture;
- ◆ Meet staff and fellow students from your program;
- ◆ Meet the volunteer buddy team;
- ◆ Meet new friends from different countries and have an opportunity to find housemates;
- ◆ Explore RMIT online and on-campus resources (RMIT email, Student Intranet, Canvas, Online Enrolment System, Library, SafeZone, etc.)

Buddy Program

To ensure you have the best experience at RMIT Vietnam, we offer a wide range of support services and activities. RMIT Vietnam encourages you to get involved and be part of our community along with local Vietnamese students.

The Buddies at RMIT Vietnam will support you during your stay in Vietnam, from the time you depart your home country until the end of the semester.

A Buddy is a current volunteer student who is well equipped with necessary skills and knowledge to help you with your transition to RMIT and living in Vietnam.

The Buddy team help to organise many activities for international students including city tours, cooking classes, welcome dinner, Vietnamese classes and culture sharing.

Be Part of Our Dynamic Campus Life

When you study at RMIT, you will be part of a vibrant and welcoming community with plenty of social, cultural, sporting and recreation activities on offer. Join a club, take part in walking tours, fitness classes, markets, cinema screenings and live music events.

Accommodation and Living costs

MELBOURNE

Testimonials

Jose Joaquin Martinez

Mexico

“I chose RMIT because of its great game design and animation program.

What I like best about studying here is the University’s professors and their teaching method. They understand students’ difficulties, and apply a practical approach and exercises to help us come up with solutions to problems.

Coming to RMIT in Melbourne has also made me more confident to travel and work anywhere in the world.”

Rachel Chuang

Taiwan

“I chose RMIT because of the ranking and the variety of courses. As it turns out it was ten thousand times better than I expected!”

Giordano Dalla Vecchia

Italy

“Hanoi is incredibly fascinating. There is no better feeling than exploring the colourful narrow streets, taking in all the scents of the Old Quarter or just simply grabbing a drink with friends by the lake near the RMIT campus.”
