STUDY ABROAD

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN SYDNEY

With FREE
On-Campus
Accommodation for Autumn & Spring Sessions
in 2015

The University of Western Sydney (UWS) is a world-class university, placed among the world's best 100 universities under the age of 50 in the Times Higher Education rankings* and is in the top 2% of universities in the world.

UWS is offering a limited number of single semester, free on-campus accommodation places for students enrolled in a one semester study abroad course in 2015 at our Penrith, Bankstown or Campbelltown campus.

The offer is available to students who commence their main course in Semester 1, 2015 (February - June 2015) or Spring session, 2015 (July – November).

Successful applicants will have a single room with access to shared kitchen and bathroom facilities. The accommodation offer is for a single room only. Dependent spouses will need to make separate arrangements.

Valued at approximately AUD$210/week, the package includes:

- Electricity and heating expenses
- Internet services

Students will need to provide $800 bond (refundable if property is kept in good condition) and must pay for telephone access. Students will also have to pay a non-refundable Residential activity fee ($50 per semester). Qualifying students will be automatically assessed when lodging their expression of interest. Successful recipients will be notified and will need to apply directly to UWS International.

This offer is for Autumn (semester 1) and Spring (semester 2) sessions, 2015 and to be eligible students must complete a full time semester of study at UWS.

PENRITH CAMPUS

Penrith is a city on the western fringe of the Sydney metropolitan area and located at the foot of the Blue Mountains on the spectacular Nepean River. The University of Western Sydney is a major facet of the Penrith region, and it attracts students from all over Sydney and around the world. The 158-hectare Penrith campus occupies two large sites in the adjacent Western Sydney suburbs of Kingswood and Werrington, and is 60-90 minutes from the Sydney Central Business District by train or car. The campuses of Kingswood and Werrington are divided by the Great Western Highway. They are linked by a free shuttle bus service from Kingswood train station that services the campus continually throughout the day and provides easy access to libraries, computer centres, student services, cafés, bars, sporting venues.
