

SPECIALLY DESIGNED COURSES

UNIVERSIDAD ADOLFO IBÁÑEZ / VIÑA DEL MAR / CHILE

Universidad Adolfo Ibáñez, campus Viña del Mar, offers courses taught in English and also Spanish as a foreign language classes, specially designed for international students.

- » The courses that are taught in English include subjects that match to what is taught in the second or the third undergraduate year, such as pointed out by the first code number that represents them (e.g. HISP 360).
- » In these courses the international students have the opportunity to share the class with students who come from all over the world and even with some Chilean students that may have the chance to enroll into some of them.
- » The specially designed courses for our international students offer in general a total of 3 credits per class. A number of six classes (18 credits) corresponds to a full semester academic load equal to 30 ECTS credits.
- » For the specially designed courses the semester begins in March (Spring) and August (Fall), and ends in June (Spring) and November (Fall).
