

About the course:

Spanish has become the second most spoken language in the world, and one of the best ways to learn and practice Spanish is being immersed in a native language country, plus having the opportunity to live in the historical city of Cusco.

For many years, Universidad San Ignacio de Loyola (USIL) has been hosting international students from around the world who want to live an excellent experience abroad as well as to learn Spanish in Cusco, Peru. The participants will learn and study through seminars, classes, cultural visits and extracurricular activities.

Housing:

We will provide an off-campus housing contact list with students' houses, apartments and homestays options. We help you find the best option according to your preferences. We highly recommend Homestays since staying and interacting with a host family adds value to the Immersion experience and your Spanish language acquisition process.
