Statement of Financial Sponsorship (Valid May 2012 - April 2013)

U.S. Immigration Law requires you to certify that you have sufficient funds available for your academic and living expenses. Below are the estimated minimum funds, based upon the 2012 – 2013 school year expenses. The total amount of your costs depends on the number of terms you plan to study at HPU.

	<input type="checkbox"/> Fall or Spring Semester	<input type="checkbox"/> Fall and Spring Semester	<input type="checkbox"/> Entire Summer	<input type="checkbox"/> One Summer Term*
Tuition	$ 9,250	$ 18,500	$ 4,260	$ 2,130
Housing and Living Expenses	$ 6,241	$ 12,482	$ 6,241	$ 3,150
College Related Expenses	$ 1,644	$ 3,285	$ 1,340	$ 650
TOTAL	$ 17,135	$ 34,267	$ 11,841	$ 5,930

- * Costs for summer terms are determined on an individual basis by number of courses and terms. This is an estimate for an individual taking two undergraduate classes (6 credits) during one summer term (7 1/2 weeks).
- ** This is an estimate for an individual taking four undergraduate classes (12 credits) during the entire summer (13 weeks).
- *** Books, health insurance, etc.

Note: Tuition and housing costs will increase starting in May 2013.

HPU Course Selection – (can be submitted at a later time) www.hpu.edu/courses

As an international student, you are required by U.S. regulations to be enrolled full time. For fall and spring semesters, undergraduate students must enroll in a minimum of four courses (12 credits) and graduate students in at least three graduate courses (9 credits). Be sure to consider how many credits your school will require you to take for full-time status. (Note: Only one course may be online)

Below are some other criteria pertaining to the level of courses you may enroll in:

- Students who have completed high school only, may select HPU courses with numbers 1000 to 2500 (for example: MGMT 1000). Students MUST enroll in WRI 1100 and may choose four additional courses.
- Current university students who have completed at least two semesters of studies, may select four to five undergraduate courses with numbers 1000 to 4500.
- Students who have already completed a bachelor’s degree may select courses with numbers 5000 and higher.
- Undergraduate students are allowed to take one online course for every 12 credits they are registered for.

*Note: Depending on your written English test score, you may be required to take WRI 1100 as one of your courses.

HPU course schedules are available at www.hpu.edu/courses and they are posted approximately four to five months prior to the start of each semester/term. All courses have brief descriptions, number of credits, as well as prerequisites listed online. You cannot take a course unless all prerequisites have been met.

Note: Consider your selections carefully as changes will only be permitted upon arrival in consultation with an academic advisor.

*A $30 Add/Drop fee will be automatically applied for course changes made after registration is completed.

TIMELINE – What happens after you submit your application?

• STEP 1 – Acceptance

- As soon as HPU receives your application, it will be processed by the Office of International Admissions. Within a few days, you will receive an e-mail that the application has arrived as well as further instructions.
- After another week, HPU will inform you about your admissions status via e-mail. If you are accepted into the Study Abroad Program, HPU will mail you an official acceptance letter along with a comprehensive information packet two to three weeks after the acceptance e-mail notification. You will also get access to the HPU Intranet (called Pipeline) once you are accepted.

• STEP 2 – I-20 Form and VISA <www.hpu.edu/visa>

- Once you have submitted the required financial documents, Hawai'i Pacific University will issue the I-20 form (required by the U.S. Consulate in your country to apply for the F-1 student visa) and mail it to you.
- After you have received the I-20 form, you must first pay a SEVIS fee before scheduling an appointment with your local U.S. embassy for your visa interview. Information about this process may be found at www.hpu.edu/visa
- Depending on the embassy, it might take up to several weeks to receive your F-1 student visa.

• STEP 3 – Course Selection and Registration <www.hpu.edu/courses>

- As soon as the HPU course schedule is available online (www.hpu.edu/courses), you may select courses and submit your list to your admissions coordinator, if you have not already done so.
- An HPU advisor will review your course selection to ensure that the selected courses meet your needs and interests.
- HPU will also look at your high school or university transcripts to determine if you have the appropriate background knowledge for the HPU classes you have chosen and that all prerequisites have been met.
- If no further information is needed, you will be registered and contacted via e-mail to inform you about your course registration.

• STEP 4 – Pre-departure <www.hpu.edu/depart>

- To prepare you for your education abroad, you will find helpful information on the HPU Web site (www.hpu.edu/depart), in your acceptance packet, as well as on HPU's Intranet (Pipeline).
- Carefully read through the resources which contain helpful information on housing, airport pickup, health care, etc. to ensure a smooth transition to HPU.
- Contact your admissions coordinator or country representative if any questions arise.

• STEP 5 – Arrival <www.hpu.edu/arrive>

- Welcome to Hawai'i! After you arrive in Honolulu, the International Center staff will help you every step of the way.
- We offer comprehensive services, including airport pickup (must be prearranged), various check-in sessions, orientation activities, and much more.

During the entire process, you will receive monthly updates on your admissions status via e-mail, as well as helpful information preparing you for study and life in Hawai'i.
