Refer to the Undergraduate Bulletin for course descriptions. Certain Courses contain prerequisites required for each course. You should make sure that you have met all required prerequisites for the course(s) that you are seeking to take. All pre-requisites must be fulfilled prior to registration; otherwise you will not be permitted to register for your course(s).

Please note: there is no guarantee that you will be able to register for courses of your choosing. Registration for non-degree students is based on first come, first served basis. Course priority is given to John Jay College matriculated students. Some courses sections are limited to special populations of students which may prohibit you from registering for that particular course. Other courses may also require special permission from the chairperson of the department in which that course is sponsored.
