

Declaration of Financial Support (Student Exchange Visa)

Note: Enrolling students are responsible for demonstrating that they have sufficient funds to meet all their tuition and living expenses during the entire duration of their studies at USIL. A Student Exchange Visa (SEV) cannot be issued until the following documentation has been submitted to ftarazona@usil.edu.pe; international@usil.edu.pe and approved by the Office of the Vice President for International Relations:

- Declaration of Financial Support (below, including projected support amounts). The amount indicated must total or exceed the estimated living expenses (including tuition – if any – , housing, meals, fees, health insurance, and estimated costs for books) while the student is living in Peru. Note: the living expenses per semester are approximately USD $3,000.

AND

- A bank statement or bank letter indicating the amount of funds available for your international program.
