

Study Abroad Application Declaration – University of Westminster

- If I am applying via my home university or via a sending organisation, I agree that by making this application I am agreeing to my information to be shared in order for me to participate in the study abroad programme. The information that is shared will include information relating to my application, enrolment and any issues arising from my participation in the study abroad programme. For details on how we use your data please refer to our website.
- I understand that the information provided in this application will be used by the University of Westminster in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018.
- I agree that the information I have provided is accurate and that any medical information may be disclosed in confidence to relevant staff including those from the Halls of Residence, the Counselling Service, the Advice Service and the Student Health Service. Also that the University of Westminster may disclose information to third parties who provide services to the University, including prospective internship employers, on the basis that it is provided in confidence.
- I confirm that I have read and agree to the University's Acceptance Policy in relation to the Study Abroad Programme.
- I confirm that I have read and agree to the Study Abroad Programme withdrawal policies.
- I am making an application to the study abroad programme on the understanding that the modules in the Study Abroad Module Catalogues are issued on the express condition that all matters in them are subject to change from time to time. In particular, while the University of Westminster will use all reasonable endeavours to deliver courses, programmes of study and other educational services, circumstances may change. The University of Westminster reserves the right to vary the content and delivery of courses, in line with the Study Abroad Student Terms and Conditions document
- I confirm that I have actively researched the university accommodation options for study abroad students and the location the accommodation is located in in relation to my intended campus(es) of study. I agree that I am not able to change my accommodation once I arrive and should only accept an offer of housing on this understanding. Details on our housing withdrawal policy are available here.
- I confirm that I intend and am able to attend all lessons / classes as part of my study abroad programme at the University of Westminster.
- If I have applied for the Internship Programme, I agree that I will be expected to balance the demands of the internship with my study workload.

I have read, understood and agree to the above statements
